Unicef imagery and storytelling shows the real situation of children's lives.

We use real stories and images to amplify the voices of children and young people and to gain support for our work to improve the lives of children internationally. A piece of work you have done, or a photograph, story or film of you, might be seen in many countries, including your own. We might then use these pieces of work in print, on websites or on television programmes.

We will rarely use your story, image or film after five years, but we will keep your information on file with restricted access for limited situations in which we may revisit your story, image or film. By signing this consent form, you indicate that you are happy for us to use your story, image or film after five years. Please make sure that you and your parent/guardian both sign this consent form.

WHAT IF I CHANGE MY MIND?

If, for any reason, you decide that you don't want your image, story or video used, just let us know as soon as possible.

The person you should contact if you change your mind, or if you have any questions, is named below:

Jess Bool, Strategic Lead – Youth Engagement:
020 7375 6041 JessicaB@unicef.org.uk

You can also contact Unicef UK directly:

ABOUT THIS ACTIVITY:

1. We would like to encourage your school or group to share any photos, films and stories that you create as part of your OutRight campaign.
2. The OutRight 2020/21 campaign aims to raise awareness about the impact of climate change on children's rights, and to amplify children's voices on this issue.
3. Photos, films, work you create and stories you share will be used across Unicef UK channels, including social media and the Unicef UK website.
4. These will mainly be used with our youth engagement work and climate change work, but may also be used in other Unicef UK communications.
5. They may also be shared with media outlets.
