

FOR EVERY CHILD

CONSENT FORM OUTRIGHT 2021/22

UNICEF imagery and storytelling shows the real situation of children's lives.

We use real stories and images to amplify the voices of children and young people and to gain support for our work to improve the lives of children internationally. A piece of work you have done, or a photograph, article or film featuring you, might be seen in many countries, including your own. They might be used in print, on websites or on television programmes.

We will rarely use your story, image or film after five years, but we will keep your information on file with restricted access for limited situations in which we may revisit your story, image or film. By signing this consent form, you indicate that you are happy for us to use your story, image or film for up to five years as part of UNICEF UK's work on children's mental health. Please make sure that you and your parent/guardian both sign this consent form.

WHAT IF I CHANGE MY MIND?

If, for any reason, you decide that you don't want the work you have created, your image, views or video used, just let us know as soon as possible.

The person you should contact if you change your mind, or if you have any questions, is named below:

Grace Hunt, Youth Campaigns Officer:
020 3965 5502 outright@unicef.org.uk

You can also contact UNICEF UK directly:
