

Children reaching a good level of development by age 5

Percentage of children at good level of development end of Reception Year (2023–24)

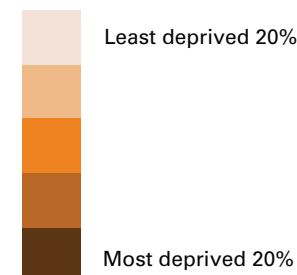

The most deprived areas are more than twice as far from meeting the Government's target of 75% of children reaching a good level of development than the least deprived areas.

London local authorities

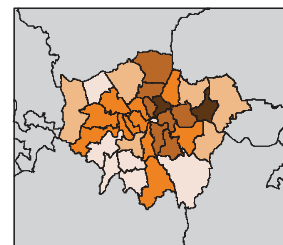

Level of Deprivation by local authority

Index of multiple deprivation average score (2019)*

London local authorities

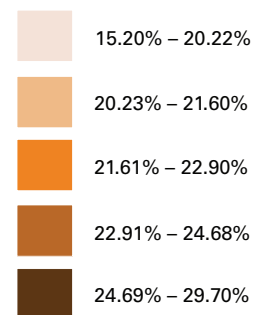

© UNICEF UK 2025

*IMD score based on combination of income, employment, education, health, crime, housing and services, and living environment

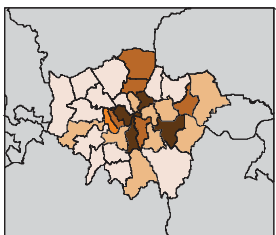

Prevalence of children in reception considered overweight or obese

Percentage of children at reception-age considered overweight or obese (2023–24)

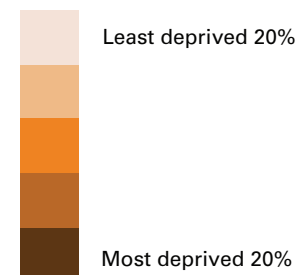

All 10 areas with the highest proportion of children considered overweight or obese in reception are within the two highest groups for deprivation.

London Local Authorities

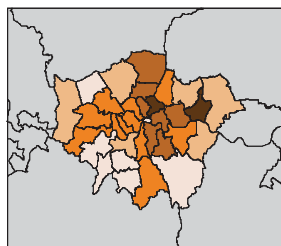

Level of Deprivation by local authority

Index of multiple deprivation average score (2019)*

London local authorities

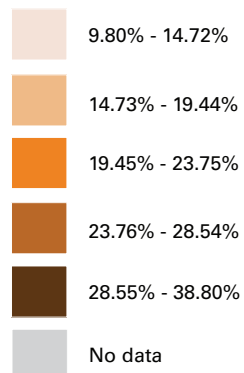

© UNICEF UK 2025

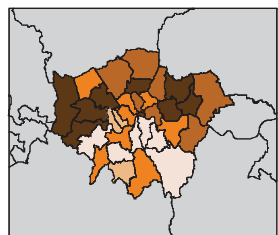

*IMD score based on combination of income, employment, education, health, crime, housing and services, and living environment

Prevalence of children age 5 with untreated dental decay

Percentage of children with obvious, untreated dentally decayed teeth (2024)

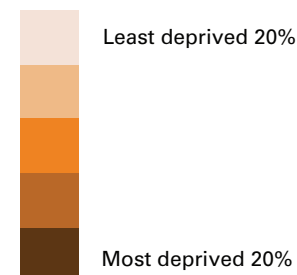

London local authorities

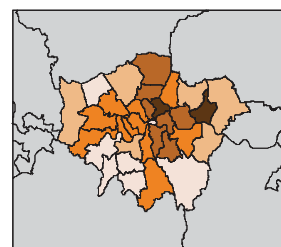

Almost twice as many children in the most deprived areas have untreated, rotting teeth by the age of 5 than those in the least deprived.

Level of Deprivation by local authority

Index of multiple deprivation average score (2019)*

London local authorities

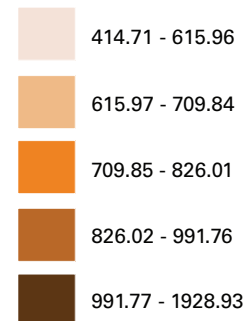

© UNICEF UK 2025

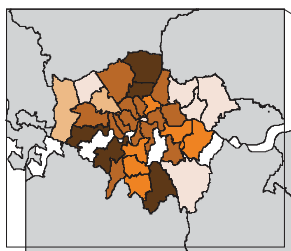

*IMD score based on combination of income, employment, education, health, crime, housing and services, and living environment

A&E attendance rate for children age 0-4

A&E attendance rate per 1,000 population aged 0-4 (2022-23)

London Local Authorities

Children aged 0-4 in the most deprived areas have 55% more visits to A&E than those in the least deprived areas

Level of Deprivation by local authority

Index of multiple deprivation average score (2019)*

London local authorities

© UNICEF UK 2025

*IMD score based on combination of income, employment, education, health, crime, housing and services, and living environment